fifty pounds, and Lord Kintore twenty-five pounds.

The floods throughout the country have gradually subsided, but the damage is tremendous, and many farmers have been ruined. Some extraordinary landings have been reported.

Sydney, 17th March.

Unprecedented floods have occurred throughout half the colony, and numbers of farmers have been ruined. Trade and traffic have been very seriously impeded and several fatalities have been reported. The Government have forwarded boats and rations to several places for the relief of the sufferers.

Sydney, 20th March.

The damage done by the late floods is estimated at half a million sterling, and it is stated that six lives were lost. The rain was the heaviest known for the past forty years.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Adelaide, 16th March.

Owing to a remonstrance made from the Bench by Judge Bonnet, implying his disapproval in the Bible, he has been the subject of much criticism by religious ladies and Freemasons.

Sydney, 16th March.

O'Connor, the American seaman, has arrived, and is anxious to row Australia's best man. Henry George, the celebrated author of "Progress and Poverty," has arrived in Sydney, and has been cordially welcomed. He advocates the Single Tax strongly.

Adelaide, 16th March.

It is believed that the leading feature of the Government policy will be a progressive Land Tax.

Adelaide, 17th March.

The scheme of the Progressive Land Tax is, that estates up to £5,000 will remain as at present, but estates over that amount will gradually increase a farthing at a time, till the maximum of three pence is reached. It is estimated that estates over one hundred thousand pounds in value will double the income from land taxation. This would enable the Government to adopt the free breakfast table, and abolish the duty on tea, sugar, coffee, &c.

Melbourne, 17th March.

This Government proposes to bring in special legislation for the suppression of the crimes of infanticide and abortion, which have been alarmingly on the increase lately.

Hartley, the manager of the Chartered Bank, at Ayrath, has been killed.

Adelaide, 24th March.

A mild form of influenza has broken out in Melbourne, Hobart, and Auckland.

Adelaide, 25th March.

The influenza epidemic has broken out at Adelaide, and is spreading rapidly. A large number of factories and business houses have been compelled to close owing to its effects, though no serious cases are feared.

POWELL HONoured.

LONDON, 11th March.

The freedom of the city of London has been conferred upon Sir James Fowler, chief civil engineer, who was one of the engineers of the Third Bridge.

HOME RULE FUND.

LONDON, 19th March.

Sir Thomas Grafton-Smith, who recently visited Australia with Mr. Dillon as one of the Irish delegates, was interviewed at New Orleans yesterday, and stated that the delegates had collected $250,000 for the Home Rule Fund. A number of Australian colonies in aid of the Home Rule movement.

[FROM INDIAN PAPERS.]

HONORER FOR STANLEY'S OFFICIATES.

Bombay, 18th March.

It is stated in today's evening papers that Lieutenant Stairs and Surgeon Parke, Stanley's officers, will be decorated with the Order of St. Michael and St. George.

CHURCHYARD.

Baron Doves, Irish Judge, is dead.

REPEATING AT LEINBURG.

Viscount Dunko is now suing for a divorce from Belle Bilton, a mustahab ariste, whom he married last year.

THE LABOUR CONFERENCE.

Berlin, 16th March.

The Labour Congress opened today in the famous Congress Hall in Prince Bismarck's Palace. Baron Berllesch, Minister of Commerce, who has been appointed President, welcomed the delegates, and dwelt upon the necessity that existed for holding a Conference in order to preserve peace between the classes threatened by competition. Committees have been appointed to examine the different sections of the programme.

Berlin, 16th March.

The international Labour Conference was formally opened yesterday. The proceedings were not open to the Press.
